

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the twelfth and thirteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws in force for the encouragement of British Shipping and Navigation," it is amongst other things enacted that no goods or passengers shall be carried from one part of any British possession in Asia, Africa, or America, to another part of the same possession, except in British ships, provided always that if the legislature or proper legislative authority of any such British possession shall present an address to Her Majesty, praying Her Majesty to authorise or permit the conveyance of goods or passengers from one part of such possession to another part thereof, in other than British ships, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, so to authorise the conveyance of such goods or passengers, as the case may be, in such terms and under such conditions as to Her Majesty may seem good:

And whereas an address has been presented to Her Majesty by the Legislative Council of the colony of Trinidad, praying that Her Majesty will be graciously pleased to authorise and permit the conveyance of goods and passengers from any part of the said colony to any other part thereof in steamers, of whatever build the same may be, and owned by subjects of any nation in terms of amity and alliance with Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, and in pursuance of the authority vested in Her as aforesaid, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful to employ steam vessels, of whatever build the same may be, and by the subjects of whatever nation (being a nation at amity with Her Majesty), the same may be owned in the conveyance of goods and passengers from any part of the said colony to any other part of the same.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them respectively shall appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Windsor, the 8th day of January 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas an Order was passed by Her Majesty in Council, on the thirteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, confirming, allowing, and finally enacting an Ordinance passed by the Governor of St. Helena, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council of that colony, on the twenty-fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-four (No 1, of 1844), intituled "An Ordinance for imposing and levying a tonnage duty upon all merchant vessels resorting to the island of St. Helena, in aid of the erection of a Civil Hospital:"

And whereas it was enacted by the said Ordinance that upon all merchant ships or vessels entering the port of James Town there should be levied a duty of one farthing per ton:

And whereas it was further enacted by the said Ordinance, that all sums of money levied and collected, in the manner provided and directed by the said Ordinance, should be applied solely in aid of the funds for erecting and defraying the expenses of providing and maintaining the said Hospital:

And whereas it has been deemed expedient that a new prison should be erected at St. Helena and maintained for the safe custody of such of the inhabitants, merchants, seamen, foreigners, and others, who by legal process may from time to time be remanded for trial or sentenced to imprisonment:

And whereas it has been represented to Her Majesty that there is a greater proportion in each year of commitments of merchant seamen to prison than of admission of the same class as patients to the Hospital, and that it is therefore reasonable that all merchant ships or vessels resorting to St. Helena should contribute equally to both of the abovenamed institutions:

And whereas it has further been represented to Her Majesty that the said Civil Hospital is nearly completed and ready for the reception of patients:

It is therefore hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that, in lieu of the duty of one farthing per ton imposed as aforesaid, a duty of one penny per ton shall hereafter be levied upon all merchant ships or vessels entering the Port of James Town for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

And it is further ordered that no ship or vessel shall be allowed to depart from the said port until all such tonnage duties as, by virtue of this present Order of Her Majesty in Council, the said ship or vessel shall be liable to, shall have been fully paid to the collector of customs in the said port, who is hereby authorized and required to levy and collect the same.

And it is further ordered, that all sums of money so levied and collected as aforesaid, shall be applied solely in aid of the funds required for completing the said hospital, and for erecting the new prison, as well as for defraying the expenses of maintaining the efficiency of both the institutions above mentioned.

And the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, are respectively to give the necessary directions herein as may to them respectively appertain.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 1, 1850.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, January 31, 1850.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by Her Majesty to assure you, that Her Majesty has great satisfaction in again having recourse to the advice and assistance of Her Parliament.

The decease of Her Majesty Queen Adelaide has caused Her Majesty deep affliction. The extensive charity and exemplary virtues of Her late Majesty will always render her memory dear to the nation.

Her Majesty happily continues in peace and amity with foreign powers.

In the course of the Autumn differences of a serious character arose between the Governments of Austria and Russia on the one hand, and the Sublime Porte on the other, in regard to the treatment of a considerable number of persons who, after the termination of the civil war in Hungary, had taken refuge in the Turkish territory.

Explanations which took place between the Turkish and Imperial Governments have fortunately removed any danger to the peace of Europe which might have arisen out of these differences.

Her Majesty, having been appealed to on this occasion by the Sultan, united Her efforts with those of the Government of France, to which a similar appeal had been made, in order to assist, by the employment of Her good offices, in effecting an amicable settlement of those differences in a manner consistent with the dignity and independence of the Porte.

Her Majesty has been engaged in communications with Foreign States upon the measures which might be rendered necessary by the relaxation of the restrictions formerly imposed by the Navigation Laws of this Country.

The Governments of the United States of America and of Sweden have promptly taken steps to secure to British ships in the ports of their respective countries advantages similar to those which their own ships now enjoy in British ports.

With regard to those Foreign States whose Navigation Laws have hitherto been of a restrictive character, Her Majesty has received from nearly all of them assurances which induce Her to hope that our example will speedily lead to a great and general diminution of those obstacles which previously existed to a free intercourse by sea between the nations of the world.

In the Summer and Autumn of the past year the United Kingdom was again visited by the ravages of the Cholera; but Almighty God, in His mercy, was pleased to arrest the progress of mortality, and to stay this fearful pestilence. Her Majesty is persuaded that we shall best evince our gratitude by vigilant precautions against the more obvious causes of sickness, and an enlightened consideration for those who are most exposed to its attacks.

Her Majesty, in Her late visit to Ireland, derived the highest gratification from the loyalty and attachment manifested by all classes of Her subjects. Although the effects of former years of scarcity are painfully felt in that part of the United Kingdom, they are mitigated by the present abundance of food, and the tranquillity which prevails.

Her Majesty has great satisfaction in congratulating you on the improved condition of commerce and manufactures. It is with regret that Her Majesty has observed the complaints which in many parts of the kingdom have proceeded from the owners and occupiers of land. Her Majesty greatly laments that any portion of Her subjects should be suffering distress; but it is a source of sincere gratification to Her Majesty to witness the increased enjoyment of the necessaries and comforts of life which cheapness and plenty have bestowed upon the great body of Her People.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

Her Majesty has directed the estimates for the year to be laid before you. They have been framed with a strict regard to economy, while the efficiency of the various branches of the public service has not been neglected.

Her Majesty has seen with satisfaction the present state of the revenue.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

Some of the measures which were postponed at the end of the last session for want of time for their consideration will be again laid before you. Among the most important of these is one for the better Government of the Australian Colonies.

Her Majesty has directed various measures to be prepared for the improvement of the condition of Ireland. The mischiefs arising from party processions, the defects of the laws regulating the relations of landlord and tenant, the imperfect state of the grand jury Acts, and the diminished number of electors for members to serve in Parliament, will, together with other matters of serious consequence, form the subjects of measures to be submitted for your consideration.

Her Majesty has learnt with satisfaction that the measures which have been already passed for the promotion of the public health are in a course of gradual adoption; and Her Majesty trusts, that, both in the metropolis and in various parts of the United Kingdom, you will be enabled to make further progress in the removal of evils which affect the health and well-being of Her subjects.

The favour of Divine Providence has hitherto preserved this kingdom from the wars and convulsions which during the last two years have shaken so many of the States of the Continent of Europe.

It is Her Majesty's hope and belief that by combining liberty with order, by preserving what is valuable, and amending what is defective, you will sustain the fabric of our Institutions as the abode and the shelter of a free and happy people.

By the QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION.

In order to the Electing Two Peers of Scotland.

Whereas David Earl of Airlie and John Lord Colville of Culross were duly elected and returned to be two of the sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and are since deceased: In order to the electing two other Peers of Scotland to sit in their room, We do, by the advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood House at Edinburgh, on Wednesday the thirteenth day of March next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose two other Peers of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers in this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said David Earl of Airlie and John Lord Colville of Culross, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing mandates in writing duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituents and proxies being qualified according to law): and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such elections made and duly examined, to certify the names of the Peers so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificates into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: and we strictly charge and command that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such elections.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this thirtieth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and in the thirteenth year of our reign.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled
"An Act for the regulation of the Duties of Postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post, of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant, and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof; and from time to time, by warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid; and it is provided that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas in consequence of a communication opened with the Post-office of Belgium, it is considered expedient to alter the rates of postage payable on letters conveyed between that country and the United Kingdom.

Now, we the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in or addressed to any place in Belgium, and transmitted between any part of the United Kingdom and any place in Belgium (conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium direct by packet-boat or private ship, or sent in closed mails viâ France, the conveyance between France and the United Kingdom being by packet-boat or private ship), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform rate of British postage of four pence.

And we direct that on every letter, not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post, between Belgium or any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, viâ Belgium, and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country through the United Kingdom, conveyed direct, by packet-boat or private ship, between the United Kingdom and Belgium, there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform rate of British postage of four pence for the conveyance of every such letter between Belgium and any part of the United Kingdom when any such letter shall be posted in or be addressed to Belgium, and an uniform British rate of eight pence for the conveyance of every such letter between Belgium and any part of the United Kingdom, when any such letter shall not be posted in or be addressed to Belgium, but shall be posted in or be addressed to any other kingdom, state, or colony, the correspondence of which shall be sent through Belgium; and also such a further or additional rate of British postage for the conveyance of every such respective letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and such colony or foreign country.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted, as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say) :—

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that letters posted in or addressed to any part of the United Kingdom and transmitted between the United Kingdom and Her Majesty's colonies, or foreign countries, through Belgium (conveyed between the United Kingdom and Belgium direct by packet-boat or private ship) shall be charged and chargeable with the like rates of British postage as would be charged and chargeable on such letters if this warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct, that printed newspapers, printed prices current, printed commercial lists, and printed courses of exchange, printed periodical publications, and printed parliamentary proceedings, sent direct between Belgium and the United Kingdom, or between foreign countries, or Her Majesty's colonies and Belgium, through the United Kingdom, or between the United Kingdom and foreign countries, or Her Majesty's colonies through Belgium, in conformity with the terms and conditions of certain Treasury Warrants, bearing date the twenty-second day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and the eleventh day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, shall continue to be forwarded in conformity with such warrants; but if any such newspapers, prices current, commercial lists, courses of exchange, periodical publications, and parliamentary proceedings shall not be forwarded in conformity with the prescribed conditions the same shall be charged and chargeable with the like rates of postage as if they were letters.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by an Act made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," or by any other Acts relating to the Post-office, or by any Treasury Warrants issued under any of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to repeal, alter, or affect any of the rates of postage fixed by certain Treasury Warrants, bearing date the sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, and the twenty-second day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, or either of them, which rates shall continue to be payable as if this warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct that the terms "packet-boat or private ship," used in this warrant, shall be deemed to include vessels belonging to, or freighted by Her Majesty's Government, or the Government of Belgium or France, despatched from or bound to the ports of the United Kingdom, and that subject to such explanation and variation, the several terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, as explained by the reference therein contained to the interpretations of the terms and expressions used in an Act passed in the first year of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct that this warrant shall come into operation on the fifteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two or more of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter, or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

GENERAL ORDER.

Horse Guards, 12th February 1850.

Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to command, that Medals should be struck to record the services of Her Fleets and Armies during the wars commencing in 1793, and one of these Medals having already been given, under the General Order of the 1st of June 1847, to every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, and Soldier, who was present at any of the battles and sieges referred to in the above Order, Her Majesty has now been graciously pleased further to command, that one of the same Medals shall be granted to every Officer, Non-Commissioned Officer, and Soldier, who has not already received one under the above-mentioned Order, and who may have been present with the Army which performed the great achievements in Egypt during the war ending in 1801.

Officers and Soldiers, who consider that they have a claim to receive such Medal, are each to apply,—as directed in the General Order of the 1st of June 1847 ;—the General Officers having such claims through the Secretary of the Commander-in-Chief of the Army ;—

The Staff Officers through the General Officers under whom they served,—if alive ;—if not alive, through the Adjutant-General of the Army ;—

Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers of regiments, battalions, and detachments, through the Commanding Officer of the regiment, battalion, or detachment at the time, if still alive. This will be known by inquiry at the Agents of the Regiment resident in London. If such Commanding Officer should not be alive, the application, in writing, must be made through the Adjutant-General of the Army.

The Board of General Officers is hereby, by

Her Majesty's command, directed to take into consideration—to investigate—the facts stated in each of these several applications, and to report to the Commander-in-Chief upon the same, for the information of Her Majesty, and to enable those commanded by Her Majesty to deliver to the claimants the Medals accordingly.

The Adjutant-General and the Military Secretary to the Commander-in-Chief, will transmit to the Secretary to the Board of General Officers such information as they may have been able to acquire, to assist in the investigations which the Board will have to make.

The Commander-in-Chief has been required to desire that the Board of General Officers will have alphabetical lists made out of the names of the claimants to one of these Medals, with his rank.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to command, that the Departments of the Secretary at War, and of the Paymaster General, may furnish to the Board of General Officers such information as the records of those Departments respectively can furnish, of the names of those serving with the army in Egypt at the period at which that service was achieved; and that the several Governments in India should be required to furnish to the Board of General Officers in London such information in respect to regiments sent to Egypt from India, of names of the several officers and individuals serving on the Staff, or in the ranks of the several regiments employed, as can be found in the several offices under the several Governments in India.

The several Governments in India will be desired to form, at the Presidency of each of the Governments, a Board of Officers, which shall have instructions to inquire into claims referred to such Board, whether by the Commander-in-Chief of the Army, or by the Board of General Officers sitting in London, or by the Commander-in-Chief of the Army of each Presidency in India.

In extending this further mark of Her Majesty's gracious consideration to those Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, whose claims to a Medal, on account of any of the services specified in the General Order of the 1st of June 1847, may have already been admitted, an additional Bar, bearing the word Egypt engraved upon it, will be added to the Clasp on which the names of the several battles, at which such Officers and Soldiers were present, are enumerated.

By Command of Field Marshal

THE DUKE OF WELLINGTON,

Commander-in-Chief.

JOHN MACDONALD,

Adjutant-General.

Admiralty, February 11, 1850.

With reference to Her Majesty's gracious intentions, as signified in the Gazette of the 1st and 7th of June 1847, that a Medal should be struck to record the services of Her Fleets and Armies during the wars, commencing in 1793, and ending in 1815; Her Majesty has further been graciously pleased to grant the Military Medal to the surviving officers, non-commissioned officers, and soldiers of the Army who served in the expedition to Egypt; and Her Majesty having signified Her pleasure to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty that measures be taken for granting the Naval Medal, or a Clasp in lieu thereof, to the surviving officers and seamen of the Royal Navy who served in that expedition.

All officers, petty officers, seamen, and marines, who consider that they are entitled to receive this mark of their Sovereign's gracious recollection of their services, and of Her desire to record the same, are to send, in writing, the statement of their claim to the above-named Medal or Clasp, addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, Whitehall, London, specifying the names of the persons, or the titles of the documents by which it can be established.

Such officer, seaman, or marine, as shall have already received the Naval Medal for other services, shall receive, instead of a new additional Medal, a Clasp with the word "Egypt" engraven thereon.

By command of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

W. A. B. Hamilton.

All parties, therefore, who consider themselves entitled to the above mark of distinction, are required forthwith to make application to the Committee of Flag Officers, Admiralty, in the following form :

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 15,
1850.

Downing-Street, February 15, 1850.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue the following Additional Instructions, under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet, to the Governor-in-Chief of New Zealand, for the purpose of modifying the Royal Instructions to that Officer so far as they relate to the disposal of lands in that colony :

Whereas by Our instructions, under Our signet and sign manual accompanying Our letters patent, under the Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, bearing date the 23rd day of December 1846, We did among other things direct that no land of or belonging to Us in New Zealand should by Us, Our Heirs or Successors, or by any Governor-in-Chief, or other person on Our behalf, and on Our authority, be alienated, either in perpetuity or for any definite time, either by way of grant, lease, licence of occupation, or otherwise, gratuitously, nor except the same should have been first put up to sale at a public auction at a minimum price of not less than 20s. an acre :

And whereas it is desirable so far to modify the said instructions as to allow of a remission to a specified extent of the purchase-money of land acquired by officers of Our army and navy, intending to settle in New Zealand, with Our permission and under regulations issued or to be issued by Us or on Our behalf by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, and of the gratuitous alienation of land for the settlement of military pensioners sent out under directions issued on Our behalf by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, or for the settlement of the aboriginal inhabitants of the colony :

Now, therefore, We do hereby revoke that part of Our said instructions which prohibits the alienation of land gratuitously, so far as regards such naval and military officers, military pensioners, or aboriginal inhabitants as aforesaid :

And We do hereby authorize and direct you to allow to such officers all such remission of purchase money or other privileges in the acquisition of land as they may from time to time be respectively entitled to, under any regulations issued or to be issued by Us or on Our behalf by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State.

And We do hereby further authorize and direct you from time to time to make such arrangements as you may be directed to make by Us or on Our behalf by one of Our Principal Secretaries of State for the settlement on crown lands within the colony of military pensioners sent out as aforesaid, and of any of the aboriginal inhabitants of the colony: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to apply to the province of New Munster, within the said colony, so long as certain provisions relating to the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown, contained in the 13th chapter of Our Instructions hereinbefore recited shall remain suspended by the operation of the Act passed in the 10th and 11th years of Our reign, intituled "An Act to promote colonization in New Zealand, and to authorize a loan to the New Zealand Company."

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 26,

EXHIBITION OF INDUSTRY OF ALL NATIONS.

To be held in London in 1851.

HER MAJESTY'S COMMISSIONERS for the promotion of the EXHIBITION OF THE WORKS OF INDUSTRY OF ALL NATIONS, to be holden in 1851, having had the various subjects of their inquiry under their anxious consideration, are now prepared to state, for the information of the public, the progress they have made in determining on the different points referred to in their announcement of the 11th January last.

The decisions they have been able to come to have been necessarily limited by their present want of knowledge as to what pecuniary means will be placed at their disposal ; and the shortness of the time, during which this vast organization will have to be completed renders it imperative upon the Commissioners to make an earnest appeal to the country, to enable them as soon as possible to know upon what amount of subscriptions they may ultimately rely.

The scale upon which this important undertaking will be conducted must depend entirely on the amount of pecuniary support which it shall receive from the public. Her Majesty's Commissioners appeal with confidence to all classes of the community to enable them to make such liberal arrangements as will ensure the success of this undertaking, in a manner worthy of the character and position of this country, and of the invitation which has been given to the other nations of the world to compete with us in a spirit of generous and friendly emulation.

The Commissioners have fixed upon the 1st day of May 1851, for opening the Exhibition.

The Commissioners will be prepared to receive and take care of, at the expense of the Commissioners, all articles which may be sent to them, and delivered at a place to be named by the Commissioners in London, on or after 1st of January 1851, and will continue so to receive goods until the 1st of March inclusive ; after which day no further goods will be received.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant a site for this purpose on the south side of Hyde Park, lying between the Kensington Drive and the Ride commonly called Rotten Row.

From the approximate estimate which the Commissioners have been able to make, they believe that the Building ought to cover a space of from 16 to 20 Acres, or about One million of Square Feet.

The Productions of all Nations will be exhibited together, under one General Classification.

The Articles exhibited will be divided into Four Sections, as before announced, and a Classified List, together with general instructions affecting each Department, are appended. Her Majesty's Commissioners wish to express their grateful sense of the valuable assistance which they have received in drawing up that List from the Members of the Sectional Committees.

The Building will be provided to the Exhibitors free from rent, and will be fire-proof.

Exhibitors will be required to deliver their objects, at their own charge and risk, at the Building in the Park ; but no charges of any kind will be made whilst they remain there.

Colonial and Foreign productions will be admitted without paying duty, for the purposes of exhibition, but not for internal consumption. Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs will consider all such Articles as Bonded Goods ; and Her Majesty's Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 will make suitable arrangements for their reception.

Her Majesty's Commissioners are desirous that there should be complete local organization, and that the Local Committees, wherever formed, should themselves collect the Subscriptions within their own districts. The Local Committees should advertise all Subscriptions they receive, and defray all local expenses, paying such commission for collection as they may think necessary.

Her Majesty's Commissioners think that the same complete system of organization should be extended as much as possible to the British Colonies.

Subscriptions should be paid to the Treasurers of Local Committees, and by them transferred to the General Fund at the Bank of England, in the names of A. K. Barclay, Esq., W. Cotton, Esq. Sir J. W. Lubbock, Bart., S. M. Peto, Esq., M.P., and Baron Lionel de Rothschild, M.P.

Her Majesty's Commissioners having undertaken the absolute control over the expenditure of all money that may come into the hands of their Treasurers, have made arrangements for auditing accounts, and ensuring the strictest economy.

Her Majesty's Commissioners hope that the funds to be placed at their disposal by voluntary contributions may be such as to enable them so to regulate the amount to be paid for entrance that all classes may be enabled to visit the Exhibition.

Should any surplus remain, after giving every facility to the Exhibitors and increasing the privileges of the Public as spectators, Her Majesty's Commissioners intend to apply the same to purposes strictly in connection with the ends of the Exhibition, or for the establishment of similar Exhibitions for the future.

However large the Building may be,—the quantity of articles sent for Exhibition may exceed any amount of space that can be provided; Her Majesty's Commissioners consequently reserve to themselves ample powers of rejection and selection. Upon the amount subscribed must necessarily depend the space which they may be enabled to allot; but under all circumstances they will have to exercise a certain discretion.

Her Majesty's Commissioners also desire that the Local Committees will, as early as possible, procure an inventory or general specification of articles proposed to be exhibited from their Districts, and of the space which will be required for their exhibition, in order to enable the Commissioners to determine as soon as possible the extent and the proportions of the building.

Her Majesty's Commissioners are in communication with the Foreign Office concerning the means of informing Foreign Governments of the arrangements making for the Exhibition.

Her Majesty's Commissioners are considering the principles upon which the Prize Fund of £20,000 shall be appropriated, and the best mode of adjudication.

If there be any points upon which Local Committees may require information, and will address themselves to the Secretaries of the Commission, Her Majesty's Commissioners will be happy to afford it to them, so far as it may be in their power.

CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS.

All Spirits, Wines, and Fermented Liquors, unless derived from unusual sources, are inadmissible, except in special cases, and under special restrictions; and when Oils, Spirits, &c. are exhibited, to prevent accidents, they must be shewn in well-secured glass vessels.

All highly-inflammable articles, such as Gunpowder, Detonating Powders, Lucifer Matches, &c.; and all Live Stock, and articles perishable within the duration of the Exhibition, are inadmissible, unless specially excepted. Further conditions and limitations will be published hereafter.

SECTION I.—RAW MATERIALS AND PRODUCE.

DIVISION (A.)—MINERAL KINGDOM.

It is desirable that the Raw Materials should be shewn in connection with the produce of the Mineral Kingdom, so as to form a history and explanation of the processes employed to fit them for the useful and ornamental purposes of life. The Exhibition would thus comprehend (1.) Illustrations of the various modes of extracting and preparing the Raw Materials for Produce; (2.) Illustrations of methods of reducing, working, or combining Raw Materials so as to obtain Products which may afterwards receive applications to the useful or ornamental purposes of life.

The Specimens fitted for exhibition should include (1.) only those remarkable for their excellence, for novelty in their occurrence or application, or economy of their extraction or preparation; or (2.) those remarkable as illustrations of some further processes of Manufacture.

DIVISION (B.)—VEGETABLE KINGDOM.

The objects which the Commission is most desirous of receiving, among the products of the Vegetable Kingdom, are such as from their utility, novelty, or practical interest may appear especially deserving public attention. Peculiarly fine samples of substances in common use; authenticated samples of substances having similar properties, but derived from different sources—such as Arrow-root, Sago, &c. Dyeing Materials, accompanied by specimens exhibiting the effect of such Materials. Fancy Wood, both in the polished, rough, and manufactured state. All sorts of Materials which are applicable to the manufacture of linen, cordage, wicker-work, paper, and the like.

Nothing, however, appears suitable to this Exhibition except such results of human industry as are capable of being preserved without injury through several months.

DIVISION (C.)—ANIMAL KINGDOM.

As Illustrations in this Division, the various processes of Preparation may be exhibited in connection with the Raw Materials; and in some cases a Finished Article may be introduced as the termination of a series of preparatory Stages of Preparation.

Nothing, however, appears suitable to this Exhibition except such results of human industry as are capable of being preserved without injury through several months.

SECTION II.—MACHINERY.

DIVISION (A.)—MACHINES FOR DIRECT USE.

Machines will be exhibited in motion, whenever it may be desirable so to do, and it may be found practicable to provide the necessary arrangements for that purpose.

DIVISION (B.)—MANUFACTURING MACHINES.

Although in arranging this class for exhibition it will generally be found advisable to separate the Products from the Producing Mechanism; yet the latter should always be accompanied with sufficient specimens of the Raw Material, in its several stages of manufacture, and of the finished product, to make the operation of the Machinery intelligible.

The complete series of tools and machinery that belongs to the manufacture of any object of common use, such as a watch, a button, or a needle, accompanied by specimens of the object and its parts, in their various stages of progress, is so instructive and interesting, that it is very desirable to obtain several such series for the proposed Exhibition.

SECTION III.—MANUFACTURES.

Manufactures to be exhibited in this Section must be in their Finished state, as fit for use.

All Articles to be admitted in this Section must exhibit one or more of the following qualifications :—

1. Increased usefulness, such as permanency in Dyes; improved forms and arrangements in articles of utility, &c.
2. Superior skill in Workmanship, as in block-printing, chasing, &c.
3. New use of known Materials.
4. Use of New Materials.
5. New Combinations of Materials, as in metal and pottery.
6. Beauty of Design, in form, or colour, or both, with reference to Utility.
7. Cheapness, relatively to excellence of Production.

SECTION IV.—SCULPTURE, MODELS, AND THE PLASTIC ART.

Objects formed in any kind of material, if they exhibit such a degree of taste and skill as to come under the denomination of Fine Art, may be admitted into this Section.
1850. I

The Specimens exhibited shall be works of Living Artists.

Oil Paintings and Water-Colour Paintings, Drawings and Engravings, are not to be admitted except as illustrations or examples of materials and processes, and Portrait Busts are not to be admitted.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL PRODUCTIONS.

Arrangements made by the Board of Customs

To admit Foreign and Colonial Productions for the purposes of the Exhibition of 1851, without payment of duty.

- 1st. That all Works intended for the Exhibition should, in the first instance, be admitted into this Country without payment of duty ; that the Goods should not be subject to examination at the Waterside, but conveyed to the place of Exhibition, at the expense of the Importer, under charge of proper Officers of the Customs, to be there opened by the Importer or his Agent, and examined in the presence of the proper Officer of the Customs, in order to assess the amount of duty which would become payable thereon if sold in this Country, and such marks attached thereto as may be considered necessary to maintain the identity of the Goods.
- 2nd. That the Goods brought for Exhibition should be considered as warehoused, under the Warehousing Regulations, in the premises appointed for the Exhibition ; and that security be given in each case for the due re-exportation of the Goods, or payment of the duty at the close of the Exhibition;—and no Foreign Goods liable to duty to be on any account removed from the premises until the termination of the Exhibition; and then only on payment of the duty, or for re-exportation.

the several ports, harbours, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers in the United Kingdom, and of His Majesty's dockyards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein, and for repealing several Acts passed for that purpose," it is enacted (among other things), that no person or persons shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks or any portion of the shores or banks of any port, harbour, or missioners for executing the office of Lord High

EXHIBITION OF THE WORKS OF INDUSTRY OF ALL NATIONS IN 1851.

Notice regarding Prizes.

“Her Majesty’s Commissioners for promoting the Exhibition of 1851 have had under their consideration the subject of the prizes to be awarded to exhibitors, and have resolved to take immediate steps for having medals struck of various sizes and different designs, it being their opinion that this is the form in which it will, generally speaking, be most desirable that the rewards should be distributed. They will endeavour to secure the assistance of the most eminent artists of all countries in producing the medals, which will, they hope, be valuable as works of art of the highest class, besides serving as records of distinction in connexion with the Exhibition. They have decided to select bronze for the material in which the medals are to be executed, considering that metal to be better calculated than any other for the development of superior skill and ingenuity in the medallic art, and at the same time the most likely to constitute a lasting memorial of the Exhibition. A notice, stating the conditions of competition, will be issued without delay.

“With regard to the mode in which the prizes are to be awarded the Commissioners think it inexpedient to establish beforehand rules so precise as to fetter the discretion of the juries upon which the task will ultimately devolve. It will be sufficient for the present to indicate the general principles to which it will probably be advisable to conform in the award of prizes for successful competition in the several departments of the Exhibition.

“In the department of Raw Materials and Produce, for instance, prizes will be awarded upon a consideration of the value and importance of the article, and the superior excellence of the particular specimens exhibited; and in the case of prepared materials, coming under this head of the Exhibition, the juries will take into account the novelty and importance of the prepared product, and the superior skill and ingenuity manifested in the process of preparation.

“In the department of Machinery, the prizes will be given with reference to novelty in the invention, superiority in the execution, increased efficiency, or increased economy, in the use of the article exhibited. The importance, in a social or other point of view, of the purposes to which the article is to be applied will also be taken into consideration, as will also the amount of the difficulties overcome in bringing the invention to perfection.

"In the department of manufactures, those articles will be rewarded which fulfil in the highest degree the conditions specified in the sectional list already published; viz.:—

"Increased usefulness, such as permanency in dyes, improved forms and arrangements in articles of utility, &c. Superior quality, or superior skill in workmanship. New use of known materials. Use of new materials. New combinations of materials, as in metal and pottery. Beauty of design in form, or colour, or both, with reference to utility. Cheapness, relatively to excellence of production.

"In the department of Sculpture, Models, and the Plastic Art, the rewards will have reference to the beauty and originality of the specimens exhibited, to improvements in the processes of production, to the application of art to manufactures, and, in the case of models, to the interest attaching to the subject they represent.

"These general indications are sufficient to shew that it is the wish of the Commissioners, as far as possible, to reward all articles in any department of the Exhibition which may appear to competent judges to possess any decided superiority, of whatever nature that superiority may be, in their own kind. In selecting the juries who are ultimately to guide them in making their reward, the Commissioners will take the greatest pains to secure the services of men of known ability to form a judgment, above the suspicion of either national or individual partiality (for which purpose they will be composed partly of English and partly of foreigners); and who may be expected to recognise and appreciate merit wherever it may be found, and in whatever way it may shew itself. The names of persons selected to act on these juries will be published when decided upon.

“A question having been put to the Commissioners as to the parties who will be allowed to exhibit, and who will be considered to be entitled to the prizes, they avail themselves of this opportunity to state, that all persons, whether being the designers or inventors, the manufacturers or the proprietors, of any articles, will be allowed to exhibit, and that it will not be essential that they should state the character in which they do so. In awarding the prizes, however, it will be for the juries to consider in each individual case how far the various elements of merit should be recognised, and to decide whether the prize should be handed to the exhibitor without previous inquiry as to the character in which he exhibits.

“Lastly, the Commissioners have to state that, in announcing their intention of giving medal prizes, they do not propose altogether to exclude pecuniary grants, either as prizes for successful competition, or as awards under special circumstances, accompanying and in addition to the honorary distinction of the medal. There may be cases in which, on account of the condition of life of the successful competitors (as, for instance, in the case of workmen), the grant of a sum of money may be the most appropriate reward of superior excellence; and there may be other cases of a special and exceptional nature, in which, from a consideration of the expense incurred in the preparation or transmission of a particular article entitled to a prize, combined with a due regard to the condition and pecuniary circumstances of the party exhibiting, a special grant may with propriety be added to the honorary distinction. The Commissioners are not prepared, for the present at least, to establish any regulations on these heads. They consider it probable that a wide discretion must be left to the juries to be hereafter appointed in respect to the award of money prizes, or the grant of money in aid of honorary distinctions; it being understood that such discretion is to be exercised under the superintendence and control of the Commission.

“The Commissioners will resume the consideration of this subject as soon as they shall be able to calculate the cost of the dies and the execution of the medals, on the preparation of which they have decided.

(Signed) J. Scott Russell,
Stafford H. Northcote, } Secretaries.”

EXHIBITION OF THE WORKS OF INDUSTRY OF ALL NATIONS IN 1851.

Notice regarding Designs for Medals.

“Her Majesty’s Commissioners for promoting the Works of Industry of all Nations hereby give notice:—

“That it is their intention to give medals as rewards in the forthcoming Exhibition; and they hereby invite the artists of all countries to enter into competition for the production of such medals, subject to the following conditions:—

“It is intended to strike three bronze medals of different sizes and of different designs.

“2. The obverses of these medals, for which no designs are required, will contain portraits of Her Majesty, and of His Royal Highness Prince Albert, and will be executed in this country.

“3. Three prizes of 100*l.* each will be given for the three designs for the reverses which may appear the most meritorious, and the most suitable to the purpose of the Commissioners.

" 4. Three prizes of 50*l.* each will be given for the three best designs which are not accepted.

" 5. The reverses should be illustrative of the objects of the Exhibition, or appropriate as the rewards of successful competition.

" 6. The designs are to be sent to the secretaries of the Commission on or before the 1st of June 1850, addressed to No. 1, Old Palace-yard. They must be nine inches in diameter, executed in basso-relievo, in plaster of Paris.

" 7. A space must be reserved for a short inscription.

" 8. The same artist may compete for all the three medals.

" 9. The name of the designer is to be sent in a sealed paper attached to the design. This paper will not be opened till the Commissioners have decided to whom the prize should be awarded.

" 10. The Commissioners postpone consideration of the execution of the dies, reserving to themselves the right of making such arrangements for executing the successful designs as may appear to them to be the best.

(Signed) J. Scott Russell,
Stafford H. Northcote, } Secretaries."

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London, humbly crave leave to approach your Majesty to tender our heartfelt congratulations upon your Majesty's safe delivery, and the happy birth of another Prince.

We most cordially participate in those feelings of gratitude to Divine Providence for the late mercy vouchsafed to your Majesty and the nation, which animate all classes of our fellow subjects, and we fervently pray that the Almighty Ruler of Princes may long preserve your Majesty and your illustrious Consort in the enjoyment of every domestic happiness, surrounded by your beloved children, and guarded by the affections of a free, contented, and religious people.

Henley Smith, Clerk and Treasurer.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I thank you sincerely for your loyal and dutiful congratulations.

"The welfare and happiness of all classes of my subjects engage my constant attention ; and the assurance of the affection of a free, contented, and religious people, affords me the highest gratification."

This day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Dublin, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address ; which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.
The humble, loyal, and dutiful Address of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal city of Dublin, humbly tender to your Majesty our heartfelt congratulations upon the recent happy event, the birth of a Prince.

The intelligence of every addition to your Majesty's domestic felicity we, in common with all your Majesty's Irish subjects, hail with unspeakable joy, and anxiously look forward to witness in our native land the continued and increased happiness of our beloved Sovereign.

William Ford, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I receive with sincere pleasure your loyal and affectionate congratulations, and I thank you for the interest which you express in my domestic happiness.

"It will always afford me the highest satisfaction to promote the welfare and to be assured of the attachment of my faithful Irish subjects."

Buckingham Palace, June 29, 1850.

This day the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Dublin, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address; which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient and loyal city of Dublin, approach your Majesty, having learned with deep regret that your Majesty's Ministers have it in contemplation to introduce in this present session, for the sanction of Parliament, a measure for the abolition of the office of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, which office has existed in connection with the Crown of Great Britain and Ireland for many centuries.

We feel that the passing of such a measure at this eventful time, when the inhabitants of Dublin are already weighed down by a succession of the most grievous and distressing visitations must be attended with consequences ruinous not alone to the traders, shopkeepers, operatives, and owners of house property in this your Majesty's once prosperous—now impoverished—city, but also to every rank and class of society throughout the country.

The withdrawal of the Vice-Regal Court from Ireland would necessarily induce our now few resident nobility and gentry to visit foreign assemblies, and the great and crying evil of absenteeism, with all its baneful results, must thus be augmented and perpetuated.

The agricultural and commercial resources of Ireland are at all times unsettled and unproductive; poverty, with its train of starvation and misery, stalks through the country, and the minds of the people are filled with gloomy despair.

Under these circumstances, we most urgently but respectfully implore your Majesty to discountenance such an experiment, and to exercise the powers vested in the Crown to prevent the passing of the intended measure, and thereby save this unfortunate country from the infliction of that great additional calamity.

William Ford, Town Clerk.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“You may be assured of the deep interest which I feel in the welfare of the city of Dublin, and of my desire to promote the happiness and contentment of all classes of my subjects.

“I have the fullest confidence that any legislative measures affecting Ireland, which may be submitted for my sanction, will be framed with a view to strengthen the bond of union between that country and Great Britain, and, by so doing, to advance the good government and prosperity of all parts of the United Kingdom.”

This Gazette also contains Addresses of congratulation presented to the Queen on occasion of the Birth of another Prince, which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously :

FURTHER REGULATIONS AS TO POST-OFFICE MONEY ORDERS.

1. Whereas certain regulations relating to Post-office Money Orders were made and issued, bearing date on or about the 12th day of September 1848; and whereas it is expedient to make and establish other regulations relating thereto; Now

I, Ulick John Marquess of Clanricarde, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, by and with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order, direct, and declare that the said regulations, bearing date the said 12th day of September 1848, shall be and remain in force as to all money orders heretofore granted or issued, save and except so far as the same shall or may be altered by the regulations hereby made; and that so far as the same shall be so altered, or shall be inconsistent with the regulations hereby made, the said regulations of the 12th September 1848, or so much thereof as shall be so altered or inconsistent, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

2. And whereas it sometimes happens that Post-offices on which money orders are drawn become vacant, and the business thereof is suspended or impeded by reason of the death, resignation, dismissal, or otherwise, of the deputy, sub-deputy, or receiver, and sometimes application is made for the payment of money orders to be transferred from the Post-office on which they have been drawn to some other Post-office, and it is expedient to make provision for the payment of such money orders; Now I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare that the Postmaster-General for the time being may, from time to time, as he shall think fit, order and direct that the payment of any money orders which have been at any time heretofore issued or granted, or which shall be at any time hereafter issued or granted on or payable at any Post-office shall be transferred to, and that such money orders shall be paid and payable at any other Post-office the said Postmaster-General shall for that purpose direct or appoint.

3. And I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare, that from and after the expiration of twelve calendar months next, after the month in which any money order shall be hereafter issued or granted by any Post-office, every such money order shall be absolutely void and of no effect, and all liability to pay such money order, or the money in respect of which the same shall be so issued or granted by or on the part of the Post-office revenue, or the Postmaster-General, or the Deputy Postmaster, or other person by whom such money order shall be issued or granted, or upon whom, or upon, or at whose office the same shall be drawn, or in the event of the payment thereof having been transferred to any other Post-office, then upon whom, or upon, or at whose office the same shall be subsequently made payable, shall absolutely cease and determine to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

4. And I do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare, that all money orders which have been at any time heretofore issued or granted, or which shall be at anytime hereafter issued or granted by any Post-office, shall be paid at the Post-office upon which the same have been or shall be drawn (or in the event of the payment thereof having been transferred to any other Post-office, then at the Post-office at which the same have been or shall be subsequently made payable), before the expiration of two calendar months next after the end of the month in which the same have been, or shall be so issued or granted; and that from and after that period no such money orders shall be paid or payable: Provided always, that in every case where any money order at any time heretofore issued or granted, or at any time hereafter issued or granted, shall not have been paid as aforesaid within the period of two calendar months next after the month in which the same hath been or shall be issued or granted, the person or persons in whose favour any such money order shall have been drawn, or at whose instance the same shall have been so issued or granted, or his or their executors or administrators may, at any time before the expiration of twelve calendar months next after the month in which any such money order shall have been so issued or granted, upon application to the Postmaster-General for that purpose, and his consent thereto having been obtained, receive from any Post-office the Postmaster-General shall think fit a new money order for the same amount as the former money order, or for the same amount less the poundage payable thereon, and every such new money order shall be paid at the Post-office upon which the same shall be drawn, or at which it shall be subsequently made payable as aforesaid before the expiration of twelve calendar months next after the end of the month in which the same shall have been so granted or issued as aforesaid, and no such new money order shall be paid or payable after that period ; and in like manner, after the expiration of the period for payment of any former money order heretofore or hereafter issued or granted, a new money order may, upon such application as aforesaid, be obtained for the same amount as the money order in lieu of which it shall be so issued or granted, or for the same amount less the poundage payable thereon ; and for every new money order so issued or granted a fresh poundage according to the regulations in force at the time of the granting of such new money order shall be payable and paid by the person so applying for and receiving the same ; or, if the Postmaster-General shall think fit, such poundage shall be deducted from the amount of the former order ; and in that case, the new order shall be granted for the difference between the amount of such poundage and the amount of the former order: Provided, that no such new money order shall be paid or payable at any Post-office whatever after the expiration of two calendar months next after the end of the month in which the same shall be so issued, nor shall any such money order be issued or granted unless applied for before the expiration of twelve calendar months next after the month in which the money order in lieu of which the same is so applied for shall have been issued or granted; and every new money order shall be subject in every respect to the same regulations as are hereinbefore contained with reference to original orders.

5. And I, the said Ulick John Marquess of Clanricarde, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, do hereby, by and with such consent as aforesaid, further order, direct, and declare that in all cases where any money order at any time heretofore issued or granted, or to be at any time hereafter issued or granted by any Post-office (whether original or renewed) shall have been paid at the Post-office upon which the same shall have been drawn, or at which the same shall have been subsequently made payable as aforesaid, all liability by or on the part of the Post-office revenue or the Postmaster-General, or the Deputy Postmaster, or other person by whom such money order was or shall be issued or granted, or upon whom, or upon or at whose office the same was or shall be drawn, or was or shall be subsequently made payable as aforesaid by reason of the said money order, or of the granting or issuing thereof, or of such payment thereof as aforesaid, by whomsoever the said money order shall have been presented, or to whomsoever it shall have been paid, or in whatever name the money order receipt shall have been signed, shall absolutely cease and determine to all intents and purposes whatsoever, whether such payment shall have been made by or through any forgery, fraud, misrepresentation, or mistake, or otherwise howsoever. Dated this 8th day of July 1850.

CLANRICARDE, Postmaster-General.

I hereby signify the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to the foregoing regulations.

G. Cornewall Lewis, Secretary to the Treasury.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas the Mails passing between the United Kingdom and certain parts of the British West Indies are about to be landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent from thence to their places of destination ;

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested, in and by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, direct, that Letters passing by the Post between the United Kingdom and the British West Indies, or between any ports in the British West Indies, or between the British West Indies and British North America respectively, landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent on from thence to their places of destination, shall be charged with the same rates of postage only as would have been chargeable thereon if the same had been sent direct to their places of destination without having been first landed at the said island of Saint Thomas.

And we direct, that printed Newspapers and other printed papers passing by the Post between the United Kingdom and the British West Indies, or between any ports in the British West Indies, or between the British West Indies and British North America respectively, landed at the island of Saint Thomas, and sent from thence to their places of destination, shall be considered as having passed direct to their places of destination, and be free of postage, or chargeable with postage, accordingly as the case may be.

And we direct, that Letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, brought into the United Kingdom from seamen employed in Her Majesty's Navy, when actually employed in Her Majesty's service on board Her Majesty's ships on foreign stations, on the private concerns of such seamen, shall, if enclosed in stamp covers, or having a stamp affixed thereto (the stamp being affixed or appearing on the outside, and of the value or amount of one penny, and specially provided under the authority of the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and if the stamp shall not have been used before), pass by the post free of postage as if one penny had been paid in money on such letter being put into a post-office established under the authority of the Postmaster-General as required by the said Act, provided that upon every such letter shall be subscribed the name of the writer and his class or description in the vessel to which he shall belong, and that upon every such letter there shall be written in the handwriting of and signed by the officer having at the time the command of such vessel the name of such officer, and the name of such vessel, as required by the said Act. And if any such letter shall be sent by private ships, the gratuities payable by law to the masters of such vessels in respect of such letters shall be charged on such letters and paid to the post-office by the parties to whom the same shall be addressed, provided that it shall be optional to the sender of any such letter to pay such gratuities by affixing on such letters, at the time of sending the same, additional stamps to the amount of such gratuities.

And we direct, that the term "British West Indies," in this warrant, shall include the Bermudas, the Bahamas, and other British islands commonly called the West Indies, as also the colonies of British Guiana, and Honduras, and their respective dependencies, and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any other regulations in lieu thereof.

Buckingham-Palace, August 15, 1850.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart. C.B. Deputy Great Chamberlain, (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), the Lord Steward of the Household, the Duke of Wellington, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the robing-room in the customary manner.

. Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order ;—the sword of state was borne by the Duke of Wellington, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Marquess of Lansdowne.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness Prince Albert on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esquire, Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

. An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund, and certain other sums, to the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to appropriate the supplies granted in this session of Parliament.

: An Act to consolidate and amend the laws relating to friendly societies.

: An Act to amend an Act passed in the tenth year of Her present Majesty's reign, for empowering the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to purchase land for a harbour of refuge and break-water in the Isle of Portland, and to make further provisions for the division and application of the purchase money.

. An Act to enlarge and extend the powers of an Act of the ninth and tenth years of Her present Majesty, intituled " An Act to enable the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods to construct a new street from Spitalfields to Shoreditch.

An Act to authorize the transfer of loans for the improvement of land in Ireland to other land.

An Act to repeal the stamp duties on proceedings in the courts of law in Ireland, and to grant certain other stamp duties in lieu thereof.

An Act to continue the Act for amending the laws relating to Savings' Banks in Ireland.

An Act to relieve the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company from contributing towards the expense of the proposed new harbour at Holyhead, and to take away the powers of the said Company in relation to such harbour.

An Act to vest in the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland certain works and rights of the Lough Corrib Improvement Company, and to compensate such Company for the same.

An Act for confirming certain further provisional orders of the General Board of Health.

After which Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious speech to both Houses of Parliament :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have the satisfaction of being able to release you from the duties of a laborious session.

The assiduity and care with which you have applied yourselves to the business which required your attention merit my cordial approbation.

The Act for the better government of my Australian Colonies will, I trust, improve the condition of those rising communities. It will always be gratifying to me to be able to extend the advantages of representative institutions, which form the glory and happiness of my people, to colonies inhabited by men who are capable of exercising with benefit to themselves the privileges of freedom.

It has afforded me great satisfaction to give my assent to the Act which you have passed for the improvement of the merchant naval service of this country ; it is, I trust, calculated to promote the welfare of every class connected with this essential branch of the national interest.

The Act for the gradual discontinuance of interments within the limits of the metropolis is in conformity with those enlightened views which have for their object the improvement of the public health. I shall watch with interest the progress of measures relating to this important subject.

I have given my cordial assent to the Act for the extension of the elective franchise in Ireland. I look to the most beneficial consequences from a measure which has been framed with a view to give to my people in Ireland a fair participation in the benefits of our representative system.

I have observed with the greatest interest and satisfaction the measures which have been adopted with a view to the improvement of the administration of justice in various departments, and I confidently anticipate they will be productive of much public convenience and advantage.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The improvement of the revenue, and the large reductions which have been made in various branches of expenditure, have tended to give to our financial condition stability and security. I am happy to find that you have been enabled to relieve my subjects from some of the burthens of taxation, without impairing the sufficiency of our resources to meet the charges imposed upon them.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I am encouraged to hope that the Treaty between Germany and Denmark, which has been concluded at Berlin under my mediation, may lead at no distant period to the restoration of peace in the north of Europe. No endeavour shall be wanting on my part to secure the attainment of this great blessing.

I continue to maintain the most friendly relations with foreign powers, and I trust that nothing may occur to disturb the general peace.

I have every reason to be thankful for the loyalty and attachment of my people; and, while I am studious to preserve and to improve our institutions, I rely upon the goodness of Almighty God to favour my efforts, and to guide the destinies of this nation.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by Her Majesty's command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is Her Majesty's royal will and pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the fifteenth day of October next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the fifteenth day of October next.

Downing-Street, August 23, 1850.

The Queen has been pleased to issue the following Additional Instructions, under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet, to the Governor-in-Chief of New Zealand, for the purpose of modifying the Royal Instructions to that Officer, so far as they relate to the disposal of lands in that colony :

Whereas by the 13th chapter of certain instructions under Our Signet and Sign Manual, approved by Our Privy Council, and accompanying certain Letters Patent under the Great Seal of

Our United Kingdom, bearing date the 23rd day of December 1846, provision was made respecting the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown in the two provinces of the colony of New Zealand, and therein respecting the sales of the said lands, and respecting the reservation thereon of certain rents and royalties; and whereas the 31st clause of the said chapter is in the words following; that is to say:

“ A separate account shall be kept by the “ Treasurer of each of the said provinces of the “ gross proceeds of the said land sales, rents, and “ royalties, and of all the costs, charges, and ex“ penses of and incident in any way to the sale, “ survey, administration, and management of the “ said demesne of Us, in right of Our Crown;
 “ and after deducting from such gross proceeds
 “ all such costs, charges, and expenses, the net
 “ balance shall be by Us held in trust for defraying
 “ the cost of introducing into the said respective “ provinces emigrants from the United Kingdom,
 “ or in trust for defraying the costs of such other “ public services therein as by Us shall from time “ to time be prescribed by Instructions to be “ issued in pursuance of the said Act of Parlia“ ment, under Our Signet and Sign Manual, with
 “ the advice of Our Privy Council:”

And whereas by the said letters patent, we did reserve to ourselves, our heirs, and successors, full power and authority to amend, and for that purpose to add to, or, if necessary, repeal the said instructions; and whereas it is expedient that the hereinbefore recited clause of the said instructions should be amended:

We do, therefore, declare by these our instructions, given under Our Signet and Sign Manual, and approved in Our Privy Council, that so much of the said recited clause as prescribes the mode of expending the net balance therein referred to, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, and that the said net balance shall be by Us held in trust for defraying the cost of introducing into the said colony emigrants from the United Kingdom, or in trust for defraying the costs of such other public services, in respect of the said colony, as shall be from time to time prescribed by, or in pursuance of, any Instructions issued by Us under Our Signet and Sign Manual, and approved by Our Privy Council:

And whereas by virtue of certain proclamations issued, or to be issued, within the colony of New Zealand, certain parts of the said colony have been, or may hereafter be, divided into hundreds:

And whereas it may be expedient that part of the proceeds arising from the sale of Crown Lands, within the said hundreds, should be applied in such manner as may be specified by the wardens or other proper authorities thereof:

We do hereby further declare, that it shall be competent for the Governor, or officer administering the Government of the said colony, to authorize the application of any proportion, not exceeding one-third, of the gross proceeds of the sales of Crown Lands, effected within the limits of any such hundred, towards such purposes as shall be signified to him by the wardens of such hundred, or by such other authorities thereof as shall be designated for that purpose by any Ordinance to be passed by the Legislature of the said colony, subject nevertheless to such restrictions and regulations as shall be imposed by such Ordinance.

Whereas by our Instructions under Our Signet and Sign Manual, accompanying Our Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Our United Kingdom, bearing date the 23rd day of December, 1846, We did, among other things, make certain rules and regulations respecting the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown, which are comprized in the 13th chapter of the said Instructions :

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the 11th year of Our reign, entitled "An Act to promote colonization in New Zealand, and to authorize a loan to the New Zealand Company," it was, amongst other things, enacted, "That the several provisions relating to the settlement of the waste lands of the Crown, contained in the 13th chapter of the said Instructions under Her Majesty's Sign Manual and Signet, except such as relate to the registration of titles to land, the means of ascertaining the demesne lands of the Crown, the claims of the aboriginal inhabitants to land, and the restrictions on the conveyance of lands belonging to any of the aboriginal natives, unless to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall be suspended, and of no force and effect within the province of New Munster, in the said colony of New Zealand, until the 5th day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and during such further time as shall be directed by Parliament :"

And whereas Parliament has made no such further direction as aforesaid, and the said recited Instructions are therefore now in force in the province of New Munster :

And whereas it is by the said Act further provided "that if the Directors of the said Company shall give notice to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, within three calendar months next after the said 5th day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty, by any instrument under the seal of the Company, that they are ready to surrender the “ charters of the said Company to Her Majesty,

 “ and all claim and title to the lands granted or “ awarded to them in the said colony, all the “ powers and privileges of the said Company, “ except such as shall be necessary for enabling “ the directors to receive the several sums of “ money hereinafter mentioned, and to distribute “ the same among the shareholders and other “ persons entitled thereunto, and for enabling the “ directors to adjust and close the affairs of the “ Company, shall cease and determine, and all the “ lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the said “ Company in the said colony shall thereupon “ revert to and become vested in Her Majesty as “ part of the demesne lands of the Crown in “ New Zealand, subject nevertheless to any con“ tracts which shall be then subsisting in regard
 “ to any of the said lands :”

And whereas the Directors of the New Zealand
 Company did, on the 5th day of July last past, give to the Right Honourable Earl Grey, Our Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, such notice as aforesaid, in pursuance of the above-recited provision ; and whereas, on the giving of such notice as aforesaid, all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of the said Company, in New Zealand, reverted to and became vested in Us, as part of the demesne lands of the Crown in New Zealand, subject nevertheless, as aforesaid, to any contracts which were then subsisting in regard to any of the said lands :

And whereas certain contracts have been entered into between the New Zealand Company and certain bodies of settlers and others, in regard to lands in New Munster aforesaid, namely, with the settlers at Wellington, Nelson, and New Plymouth, and the Associations of Otago and Canterbury :

And whereas it is apprehended that the provisions contained in the 13th Chapter of the said Instructions are in certain respects inconsistent with the said contracts between the New Zealand Company and the said respective settlers and associations; and it is expedient that the said Instructions should be repealed, so far as regards the lands comprised in, or affected by, the said contracts, as far as the same may be inconsistent with the said contracts respectively, or any part thereof:

Now, therefore, know you, that We have revoked and determined, and do by these Our Instructions under Our Sign Manual and Signet, revoke and determine so much and such part only of the thirteenth chapter of the said Instructions as relates to the lands comprised in or affected by the aforesaid contracts between the New Zealand Company and the settlers at Wellington, Nelson, and New Plymouth, and the associations of Otago and Canterbury, and so far as the same may be inconsistent with the said contracts respectively, or any part thereof.

And We do hereby declare that the said contracts respectively, or any amendments in such contracts which may hereafter be made by and between Us, Our Heirs and Successors, or parties on Our or their behalf lawfully authorized, and the said bodies respectively, are and shall be in force as regards the lands comprised in or affected by the said contracts: provided always, that on the expiration or sooner determination of any such contract, the regulations comprised in the said thirteenth chapter of the said recited Instructions shall again become and remain in force as regards the lands comprised in or affected by such contract.

NOTIFICATION.

Foreign-Office, October 8, 1850.

IT is hereby notified, that Viscount Palmerston, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Minister at Copenhagen Despatches, dated respectively the 27th ultimo and the 3rd instant, inclosing communications from the Government of His Majesty the King of Denmark, of the following tenor :

(Translation.)

No. 1.

M. de Reedtz to Sir Henry Wynn.

Copenhagen,

M. le Chevalier, September 21, 1850.

Experience having shown that the free navigation of the Eyder might easily be used to the detriment of the Army of the King my August Master, the Commander-in-Chief of the Danish Troops has been authorized to prohibit all navigation of that river, if military reasons should render such a step necessary.

In communicating this decision to you, M. le Chevalier, I have to request that you will bring it to the knowledge of your Government.

Receive, &c.

(Signed) REEDTZ.

(Translation.)

M. de Reedtz to Sir Henry Wynn.

M. le Chevalier,

With reference to the official note which I had the honour to address to you on the 21st instant, I have to inform you, that according to information which I have received, the Commander-in-Chief of the Danish forces has been obliged to make use of the authority given to him to prohibit the navigation of the Eyder.

In order to afford as far as possible every facility to the navigation of friendly and neutral Powers, the Government of the King my August Master has, in the mean time, hastened to allow neutral merchant ships coming from the Baltic to leave that river until the 10th of October inclusive, and orders to that effect have been issued to the competent authorities.

With respect to vessels coming from the North Sea, I have the honour to observe to you, that the Port of Tönningen not being closed, masters of vessels may discharge their cargoes there, unless they should prefer to pursue their voyage by the Sound.

Accept, &c.

(Signed)

Whereas by an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the Duties of Postage," the Postmaster-General is authorized to charge on all letters conveyed by packet-boats between one port in any foreign country and another port in the same or any other foreign country, where post communications shall be established, such rates of postage as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by warrant under their hands, shall from time to time direct.

Now, we the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post-office, or by any Treasury Warrant issued under any of such Acts, and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct that the terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

FROM THE

Treaty of Peace, Amity, Commerce, and Navigation between Her Britannic Majesty and the Dominican Republic; with an Additional Article thereunto annexed.

Signed at Santo Domingo, March 6, 1850.

[*Ratifications exchanged at Santo Domingo,
September 10, 1850.*]

In the Name of the Most Holy Trinity.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the President of the Dominican Republic, being desirous to consecrate the formal recognition of the independence of the same, and to conclude a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and to regulate thereby the commercial intercourse between the dominions and subjects of Her Majesty and the territories and citizens of the Republic, they have for this purpose named as their respective Plenipotentiaries, that is to say :

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sir Robert Hermann Schomburgk, Knight, Doctor of Philosophy, Knight of the Royal Prussian Order of the Red Eagle; of the Royal Saxon Order of Merit; of 1850. 2 H

the Legion of Honour of the French Republic ; Her Consul to the Dominican Republic.

And the President of the Dominican Republic, Señor José Maria Medrano, Minister Secretary of State for the Departments of Police and the Interior, and charged with those of Justice, Public Instruction, and Foreign Affairs ;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles :—

ARTICLE I.

There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, her heirs and successors, and the Dominican Republic, and between their respective subjects and citizens.

ARTICLE II.

There shall be reciprocal freedom of commerce between the British dominions and the Dominican Republic. The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty may reside in and trade to any part of the territories of the Republic, to which any other foreigners are or shall be admitted. They shall enjoy full protection for their persons and properties. They shall be allowed to buy from and to sell to whom they like, without being restrained or affected by any monopoly, contract, or exclusive privilege of sale or purchase whatever ; and they shall moreover enjoy all other rights and privileges which are or may be granted to any other foreigners, subjects or citizens of the most favoured nation.

The citizens of the Dominican Republic shall, in return, enjoy similar protection and privileges in the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty.

ARTICLE III.

No tonnage, import, or other duties or charges, shall be levied in the Dominican Republic on British vessels, or on goods imported or exported in British vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels, to and from the open ports; and in like manner, no tonnage, import, or other duties or charges shall be levied in the British dominions on vessels of the Republic, or on goods imported or exported in those vessels, beyond what are or may be levied on national vessels, or on the like goods imported or exported in national vessels to or from the ports open to commerce; without prejudice whatever to the coasting trade, which remains exclusively reserved to national vessels of each of the two Contracting Parties.

ARTICLE IV.

Merchandise or goods coming from the British dominions in any vessel, or imported in British vessels from any country, shall not be prohibited by the Dominican Republic, nor be subject to higher duties than are levied on the same kinds of merchandise or goods coming from any other foreign country, or imported in any other vessels.

All articles the produce of the Republic may be exported therefrom by British subjects and British vessels, on as favourable terms as by the subjects or citizens and vessels of any other foreign country.

ARTICLE V.

The protection of the Government of the Republic shall be afforded to all British vessels, their officers and crews. If any such vessels should be wrecked on the coast of the Republic, the local authorities shall succour them, and shall secure them from plunder, and shall cause all articles saved from the wreck to be restored to their lawful owners. The amount of salvage dues in such cases shall be regulated, in case of dispute, by arbitrators chosen by both parties.

ARTICLE VI.

It being the intention of the two Contracting Parties to bind themselves by the present Treaty to treat each other on the footing of the most favoured nation, it is hereby agreed between them, that any favour, privilege, or immunity whatever, in matters of commerce and navigation, which either Contracting Party has actually granted, or may hereafter grant, to the subjects or citizens of any other State, shall be extended to the subjects or citizens of the other Contracting Party, gratuitously, if the concession in favour of that other State shall have been gratuitous, or in return for a compensation as nearly as possible of proportionate value and effect, to be adjusted by mutual agreement, if the concession shall have been conditional.

ARTICLE VII.

Each Contracting Party may appoint Consuls for the protection of trade, to reside in the dominions or territories of the other; but no such Consul shall enter upon the exercise of his functions until he shall have been approved and admitted, in the usual form, by the Government of the country to which he is sent.

The Diplomatic Agents and Consuls of each of the two Contracting Parties, residing within the dominions or territories of the other, shall enjoy the same rights, immunities, privileges, and exemptions which are or may be granted to the Diplomatic Agents or Consuls, of equal rank, of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE VIII.

The subjects of Her Britannic Majesty, residing in the Dominican Republic, shall not be disturbed, persecuted, or annoyed on account of their religion, but they shall have perfect liberty of conscience therein, and exercise their creed either within their own private houses or in their own particular chapels. Liberty shall also be granted to them to bury in burial-places, which in the same manner they may freely establish and maintain, such subjects of Her Britannic Majesty who may die in the territories of the said Republic. In like manner the citizens of the Dominican Republic shall enjoy, within all the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, a perfect and unrestrained liberty of conscience, and shall be allowed to exercise their religion, publicly or privately, within their own dwelling-houses, or in the chapels and places of worship appointed for that purpose.

ARTICLE IX.

Slavery being perpetually abolished in the Dominican Republic, and having been already declared by her an act of piracy punishable with the pain of death, the Dominican Republic engages to permit any British vessel of war which may be furnished with special Instructions under the Treaties between Great Britain and Foreign Powers, and with the formalities as are provided for in such cases by the said Treaties, relative to the prevention of the infamous

Slave Trade, to visit any vessels sailing under the Dominican flag which may, on reasonable grounds, be suspected of being engaged in this vile trade in slaves; it being understood that the distances and places between which the right of visit shall be exercised, as moreover expressed in the Treaties with other Powers for Cuba and Porto Rico, shall likewise refer to the same distance of twenty leagues from the coasts of the Dominican Republic; and if by the result of the visit it should appear to the officer in command of such British vessel of war, that the suspicions which led thereto are well grounded, the vessel shall be sent without delay to the port of Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic, and shall be delivered up to the local authorities to be proceeded against according to the laws of the Republic.

It is understood that the present Article shall not be extended to other cases which might occasion detentions and inconveniences to the Dominican vessels in their voyages and commercial enterprises, during which, on the contrary, they are authorized to expect protection and assistance; hence, if the case should arise, which however is not to be supposed, that the Dominican Republic should consider to receive by this concession any vexatious molestations, it rests with her to withdraw it, after having given a year previous due notice thereof.

ARTICLE X.

In order that the two Contracting Parties may have the opportunity of hereafter treating and agreeing upon such other arrangements as may tend still further to the improvement of their mutual intercourse, and to the advancement of the interests of their respective subjects and citizens, it is agreed that the present Treaty shall remain in force and vigour for the term of ten years from the date of the exchange of the ratifications; and either of the Contracting Parties shall have the right of giving to the other Party notice of its intention to terminate, at the expiration of the said ten years, the stipulations relating to commerce and navigation, which shall cease to be binding after ten years; and all those that relate to peace and amity shall remain obligatory to both nations.

ARTICLE XI.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Santo Domingo within the space of eight months, to be accounted from the date of this Treaty, or sooner, if such be possible.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at Santo Domingo, the sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

ROBERT H. SCHOMBURGK. (L.S.)

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

As the circumstances of the existing war with the Haytian nation might oblige the Dominican Republic to recur to extraordinary measures, it is specially understood and agreed between the two Contracting Parties, that the Dominican Republic shall have perfect liberty of making, during the same, such laws as may place her in a state to secure her defence, notwithstanding the stipulation contained in Article II that the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall not be restrained or affected by any monopoly, contract, or exclusive privilege of purchase or sale; and as her disposition is constant to attract and protect commerce, it does not enter into her views to adopt any measures of limiting it, except in the case that the existing war should continue.

The present Additional Article shall have the same force and validity as if it were inserted, word for word, in the Treaty signed this day, and shall be ratified at the same time. And in consequence of the exception it contains, it is equally understood that the sanction or disapprobation of the Treaty is specially reserved to Her Britannic Majesty.

In testimony whereof the Undersigned have, in virtue of their full powers, signed and sealed the present Article.

Done at Santo Domingo, the sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

Whereas, by an Act passed in the tenth year of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts and Demands in England," it was enacted that there should be payable, on every proceeding in the Courts holden under that Act, to the Judges, Clerks, and High Bailiffs of the several Courts by the said Act established, such fees as were set down in a Schedule to that Act annexed, or which should be set down in any Schedule of Fees reduced or altered under the power thereafter contained for that purpose, and none other; and it was further enacted that it should be lawful for one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of States with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to lessen the amount of the fees to be taken in the Courts holden under that Act in such manner as to him should seem fit, and again to increase such fees, so that the Scale of Fees given in the Schedule to the said Act should not be in any case surpassed :

And whereas, by an Act passed in the thirteenth year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts and Demands in England, and to abolish certain Inferior Courts of Record," it was enacted that it should be lawful for one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time to regulate or vary, lessen or increase, the fees or sums in the name of fees then payable, or which from time to time might be payable, on the several proceedings in the Courts holden under the said Act of the tenth year of Her Majesty, to the Judges, Clerks, and High Bailiffs of such Courts, and such fees or sums might be so regulated from time to time by way of per centage on the amount of the demand; and such Secretary of State, with such consent as aforesaid, might from time to time appoint, instead of all or any of the fees or sums in the name of fees then payable, or which might from time to time be payable as aforesaid, other fees or sums by way of per centage or otherwise, and to be payable on such proceedings under such last-mentioned Act, as such Secretary of State, with such consent as aforesaid, might direct :

And whereas, by an Act passed in the fourteenth year of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to extend the Act for the more easy recovery of Small Debts and Demands in England, and to amend the same," it was enacted that there should

In pursuance of the powers given by the said recited Acts, I, Sir George Grey, Baronet, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, with the consent of Sir William Gibson Craig, Baronet, and Henry Rich, two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do hereby order and appoint that, on and after the twenty-fifth day of November, One thousand eight hundred and fifty, the fees, or sums in the name of fees, in the Schedule to the said Act of the tenth year of Her Majesty mentioned, shall cease to be payable, and that in lieu thereof, the fees, or sums in the name of fees, mentioned in the Table following, shall be payable on the proceedings in the Courts holden under the provisions of the said Acts of the tenth, thirteenth, and fourteenth years of Her Majesty respectively. And that the fees, or sums in the name of fees, mentioned in the said Table (with the exception of the fees called in the said Table "High Bailiff's Fees"), shall in each Court be appointed and divided as follows:—Nineteen-fortieth parts thereof to be the Judge's fees, and to be applied as the Judge's fees are now applicable; nineteen-fortieth parts thereof to be the Clerk's fees, and to be applied as the Clerk's fees are now applicable in such Court; and two-fortieth parts thereof to be the High Bailiff's fees, to be applied as the High Bailiff's fees are now applicable in such Court. And that the fees called "High Bailiff's Fees" in the said Table shall be taken by the High Bailiffs for their own use.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 22, 1850.

THIS Gazette contains an Order in Council, dated the 13th day of November 1850, approving the scheme duly prepared by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to the said Commissioners in a certain lease of a quarry about to be granted by the Reverend David Hogarth, Rector of Portland, in the county of Dorset.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st November 1850.

By the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council, appointed for the consideration of all Matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations.

Whereas, by "The Designs Act 1850," it is provided that the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for the consideration of all matters relating to trade and foreign plantations may from time to time make, alter, and revoke rules and regulations with respect to the mode of registration, and the documents and other matters and particulars to be furnished by persons effecting registration and provisional registration, under two several Acts, passed respectively in the 6th and 7th years of the reign of Her Majesty, intitled respectively "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Copyright of Designs for Ornamenting Articles of Manufacture," and "An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Copyright of Designs," (which two Acts are in the said first-mentioned Act, and hereinafter called respectively "The Designs Act, 1842," and "The Designs Act, 1843," and also under the said Designs Act, 1850: and it is further provided, that all such rules and regulations shall be published in the London Gazette: Now the Lords of the said Committee, by virtue of the power vested in them by the said first-mentioned Act, do hereby make the following rules and regulations: that is to say:

I. All persons desirous of effecting registration or provisional registration of any design, must furnish to the Registrar (except in any case in which, under the 11th section of the Designs Act, 1850, he may dispense with any of such particulars) two copies, drawings, or prints of such design, and, if such design is intended for exhibition at any place certified by the Lords of the said Committee to be a place of public exhibition within the meaning of the Designs Act, 1850, then a third copy, drawing, or print also.

II. In the case of paper-hangings, calico prints, and other furnitures of such a nature as to admit of being conveniently pasted in a book, portions of such furnitures may, with the permission of the Registrar, be received for the purpose of registration, instead of the copies, drawings, and prints before mentioned.

III. Upon the face of the sheet containing such copy, drawing, or print, or if a portion of the article to be registered be furnished to the Registrar, as before provided, then, upon a sheet of paper attached thereto, or delivered therewith, must be set forth the name of every person claiming to be the proprietor of the design, or the style or title of the firm under which he trades, together with his place of abode, or place of carrying on his business, or other place of address; and also in the cases after mentioned the following further particulars (except where the Registrar may dispense with any thereof as aforesaid); that is to say:

1. If the registration of such design be sought in respect of the application thereof to ornamenting any article of manufacture or substance, there must, if the registration sought be complete registration, be set forth the number of the class or classes described in section 3 of the Designs Act, 1842, in respect of which the registration is made; or
2. If such design be for the shape or configuration of any article of manufacture having reference to some purpose of utility, the drawings or prints must be made on a proper geometric scale, and there must be set forth the title of the design, and such description thereof, in writing, as may be necessary to render the same intelligible, and the description must distinguish such parts of the design (if any) as are not new or original, and every such drawing or print, together with the title or description of such design, and the name and address of the proprietor must be on one sheet of paper or parchment, and on the same side thereof, and the size of such sheet must not exceed 24 inches by 15 inches, and there must be left on one of such sheets a blank space, on the same side on which are such drawing, title, description, name, and address, of the size of 6 inches by 4 inches, for the certificate hereinafter mentioned.

IV. All persons desirous of effecting registration of any sculpture, model, copy, or cast, within the protection of two several Acts passed respectively in the 38th and 54th years of the reign of King George the Third, and intituled respectively "An Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts and other things therein mentioned," and "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts and other things therein mentioned," which two Acts are in the said Designs Act, 1850, called the "Sculpture Copyright Acts," must furnish to the Registrar such copy, drawing, or print, or such description, writing or print, as in the judgment of the Registrar shall be sufficient to identify the particular sculpture, model, copy, or cast, in respect of which registration is desired, and the name of the person claiming to be the proprietor, together with his place of abode or business, or other place of address, or the name, style, or title, of the firm under which he trades.

V. The Registrar shall affix a number upon every such copy, drawing, print, or description of any design, sculpture, model, copy, or cast, so to be furnished to him as aforesaid, denoting the order in which the same has been received by him, and a corresponding number upon the duplicate and triplicate copy, drawing, print, or description, directed to be furnished to him as aforesaid; and he shall register every such copy, drawing, print, or description, in the order in which it is received by him, by entering the number thereof, and also the title or class thereof, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and he shall keep a proper index of all the designs, sculptures, models, and copies or casts so registered, according to the titles thereof, or arranged in such classes as to afford ready access to the same.

VI. Whenever any such registration is made, the Registrar shall retain and file in his office one of the copies, drawings, prints, or descriptions hereinbefore required to be furnished to him, and he shall return the other thereof (when two only are furnished), to the person by whom the same was furnished, having first affixed thereon, or attached thereto, a certificate, whereby he shall certify under his hand and seal of office, the fact of such registration, and the date, and the name of the registered proprietor, or the style or title of the firm under which he trades, together with his place of abode or business, or other place of address; and he shall cause the remaining copy, drawing, print, or description (when three have been furnished), having the certificate of provisional registration affixed thereon, to be deposited in the place of public exhibition so to be certified as aforesaid.

VII. Persons desirous of having the transfer of any registered design registered, must furnish to the Registrar the written transfer of such design, or other sufficient evidence of their title, together with a written request to register, to the effect set forth in the 6th section of the Designs Act, 1842, and the Registrar shall thereupon insert the name of the new proprietor in the register. If a certificate of the transfer be desired, the certified copy of the design, or an exact copy thereof, must be furnished to the Registrar for the purpose of having such certificate affixed thereon; and the Registrar shall accordingly affix thereon a certificate under his hand and seal of office, containing the like particulars as are herein required in the case of a certificate of the registration of a design.

VIII. Any person desirous of ascertaining whether with respect to any particular design there be any copyright existing, must produce to the Registrar such design, together with the registration mark thereof; or he may produce such registration mark only; or in the case of a design provisionally registered, the number thereof; and, thereupon the Registrar shall give to such person a certificate under his hand and seal of office, stating whether there be any copyright of such design existing, and if there be, then in respect to what particular article of manufacture or substance such a copyright exists, and the term of such copyright, and the number and date of the registration thereof, and also the name and place of abode or business, or other address of the registered proprietor thereof.

IX. All the services hereinbefore directed to be performed by the Registrar are to be performed, on payment of such fees as may be from time to time fixed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

on the said Tuesday the fourth day of February next.

Given at Our Court, at Windsor, this twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and in the fourteenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

Windsor-Castle, December 10, 1850.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, and Officers of the city of London waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was read by the Right Honourable James-Archibald Stuart-Wortley, M.P. and Q.C. the Recorder, and which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London, humbly approach your Majesty on no ordinary occasion.

Deeply grateful to Almighty God for His many blessings bestowed upon this highly favoured nation, we acknowledge amongst the chief, the restoration of the Protestant faith by the Reformation, and the national vindication of those great principles of civil and religious liberty, for the defence and maintenance of which your illustrious House was called to the throne of these realms.

We learn with feelings of surprise and indignation that the Bishop of Rome has recently issued a Bull, whereby he not only presumes to partition this country into pretended dioceses of the Church of Rome, but at the same time assumes the right of appointing Archbishops and Bishops of such dioceses, and conferring upon them territorial titles and ecclesiastical jurisdiction, all which we deem to be inconsistent with the principles of our constitution in Church and State, an invasion of your Majesty's Royal Supremacy, an audacious usurpation of your Majesty's prerogative of alone bestowing titles of honour, and a grievous insult to this Protestant nation.

For remedy whereof we earnestly entreat that your Majesty will direct such measures to be taken as in your Royal wisdom shall seem expedient, assuring your Majesty that you may ever confidently rely on the affectionate and cordial support of a loyal, united, and religious people.

We further humbly acquaint your Majesty that we view with feelings of deep anxiety and alarm the introduction of late years of many Romish principles and practices, and the unauthorized revival of many obsolete forms in the worship and ministrations of our Reformed National Church by some clergymen in this and other dioceses, and humbly express our firm conviction that great encouragement has been thereby given to that act of usurpation and aggression, against which we now protest, while it is our belief that greater danger to the Protestant Church is to be apprehended from unfaithful teaching than from open hostility.

We pray that it may please Him by whom kings reign and princes decree judgment, long to preserve your Majesty to be the Defender of the Protestant Faith against every assault from without and every desertion from within, and that under your Majesty's gentle and benignant sway, peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established in these realms.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Alworth Merewether.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I receive with much satisfaction your loyal and affectionate Address.

"I heartily concur with you in your grateful acknowledgment of the many blessings conferred upon this highly favoured nation, and in your attachment to the Protestant faith, and to the great principles of civil and religious liberty, in the defence of which the city of London has ever been conspicuous.

"That faith and those principles are so justly dear to the people of this country, that I confidently rely on their cordial support in upholding and maintaining them against any danger with which they may be threatened, from whatever quarter it may proceed."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's hand.

Windsor Castle, December 10, 1850.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the city of London, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was read by the Right Honourable James-Archibald Stuart-Wortley, M.P. and Q.C. the Recorder, and which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

1850.

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled :

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty with renewed assurances of our unalterable attachment to your Majesty's Person and Throne, and to the Constitution by which the Protestant succession in the House of Hanover is secured.

Among the highest blessings for which, under Divine Providence, we are grateful to your Majesty's benign government, we acknowledge the establishment of religious liberty and the preservation of the pure and scriptural worship of the Protestant faith free from all foreign dominion or interference. We have seen therefore with astonishment and indignation the recent publication in this country of a Bull or instrument obtained from the Bishop of Rome, which purports to parcel out this land into pretended dioceses dependent on that see, and has been followed by the assumption under it of titles and powers inconsistent with the rights of your Majesty's crown and the liberties of your people, at variance with the spirit of our laws, and ignoring the very existence of the Protestant religion within these realms.

Your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Corporation of the City of London, have ever been foremost in advocating and promoting the admission of every class of their fellow subjects, including Roman Catholics, to the equal enjoyment of civil rights, without reference to religious distinctions; we hope, therefore, that our present course cannot be attributed to any desire to restrict religious freedom, while we humbly but confidently assure your Majesty, that you may rely on the affectionate and loyal support of the citizens of London in repelling the encroachments now attempted by the servants of a foreign Potentate and Ecclesiastic, who assumes to govern and enthrall your Majesty's subjects by usurping the royal powers and prerogative, and pretending to establish independent jurisdictions within your Majesty's dominions.

We are further reluctantly impelled to represent to your Majesty that we have from time to time witnessed with deep regret the gradual introduction of unauthorised innovations in the scriptural worship and ministrations of the Protestant Church of England, and the occasional inculcation by some of her clergy of principles and practices nearly allied to those of Rome, which by exalting the power of the priesthood, in derogation of your Majesty's supremacy as its head, and by reviving forms and ceremonies long disused in the Church, with the general acquiescence of its rulers, have bred unseemly dissensions in the bosom of the Establishment itself, and given, as we believe, great encouragement to the enemies of the Reformed religion.

At this juncture we rely with the fullest confidence upon your Majesty, assisted by your Majesty's constitutional advisers, and aided, if necessary, by the wisdom and authority of Parliament, to enforce the laws and devise means sufficient to vindicate the rights of the Crown, to resist this attempted invasion of our liberties by the see of Rome, and to maintain the purity and integrity of the Protestant faith and worship.

It is our fervent prayer that your Majesty's life may be long spared, and that your Majesty and your Majesty's descendants may continue happy instruments, under God, in securing the inestimable blessings of liberty of person and freedom of conscience to a free, enlightened, and religious people.

Signed, by order of Court,
Henry Alworth Merewether.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"I sincerely thank you for your renewed assurances of unaltered attachment to my Person and Throne, and to the Constitution of this country.

"Your tried and consistent advocacy of the equal enjoyment of civil rights by all classes of your fellow subjects, entitles the expression of your sentiments on the present occasion to peculiar consideration.

"You may be assured of my earnest desire and firm determination, under God's blessing, to maintain unimpaired the religious liberty which is justly prized by the people of this country, and to uphold as its surest safeguard the pure and scriptural worship of the Protestant faith, which has long been happily established in this land."

They were all very graciously received, and had the honour of kissing Her Majesty's Hand.

Windsor-Castle, December 10, 1850.

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and a Deputation of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London, waited upon Her Majesty with the following Address, which was read by the Lord Mayor, and which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and the rest of your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the city of London, humbly desire to renew the assurance of our devoted loyalty and affection to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We have witnessed with the greatest surprise and indignation the late unwarrantable aggression of the Bishop of Rome against the undoubted prerogative of your Majesty's Crown, and the liberties of the people, by the promulgation of a Bull or Instrument in which a foreign potentate arrogantly assumes to himself the power to introduce into this kingdom a Romish hierarchy, and to confer upon them territorial rank and jurisdiction.

We therefore humbly but earnestly pray, that your Majesty will be pleased to adopt such measures as in your Majesty's wisdom may appear to be best calculated to vindicate your Majesty's supremacy as by law established, and to prevent all further encroachments and attempts at usurpation by the See of Rome upon the liberties and consciences of the people of this Protestant kingdom, and if the law be insufficient, that your Majesty will be pleased, with the aid of your Parliament, to make such further enactments as may be found adequate to the present emergency.

Henley Smith, Clerk and Treasurer.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

"Your renewed assurance on the present occasion of devoted loyalty and affection to my Person and Government is highly gratifying to me.

"It will continue to be, as it ever has been, my earnest endeavour, in the exercise of the power and authority entrusted to me as the supreme Governor of this realm, to maintain the independence and uphold the constitutional liberties of my people against all aggression and encroachment."

Windsor-Castle, December 10, 1850.

This day his Grace the Duke of Wellington, and a Deputation from the University of Oxford, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address to Her Majesty, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, beg leave to approach your Majesty with the renewed assurance of our attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, our loyalty to your Crown, and our steadfast adherence to the principles which called the House of Brunswick to the British Throne.

Recognizing your Majesty as (under God) "the only supreme Governor of this Realm, and of all other your Majesty's Dominions and Countries, as well in all Spiritual or Ecclesiastical things or causes as temporal," we have witnessed with insignation the recent publication within this Realm of a Papal instrument, purporting to constitute in your Majesty's Dominions a new territorial hierarchy, subject to the Bishop of Rome.

We humbly desire to lay before your Majesty our earnest remonstrance against this assumption of authority by the Bishop of Rome, in open invasion of your Majesty's Royal prerogative, and in derogation of the honour and sovereignty of the British Crown.

We also beg leave solemnly to protest against the intrusion, by the same foreign and pretended authority, of Bishops claiming ordinary spiritual jurisdiction over (or within) the dioceses of England, not only in manifest violation of the rights and independence of the Church of England, but in virtual denial of her existence as a true and living branch of the Catholic Church of Christ.

We further humbly crave permission to profess before your Majesty our faithful adherence to the principles, doctrine, and discipline of our reformed Church—our cordial assent to her declaration, that "no foreign Prince or prelate hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction or authority ecclesiastical or spiritual within your Majesty's Dominions;" and our firm resolution to resist the corrupt doctrines and superstitious practices of the Church of Rome, or any attempt to revive the Papal usurpations over the Clergy and Laity of the Protestant Church of England.

While, therefore, we disclaim the wish to deprive your Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects, or any others, from the free exercise of their religion, we, nevertheless, venture with all humility to pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take such measures as to your Majesty may seem meet, to repress all aggressions and encroachments of any foreign Ecclesiastical Power upon the rights of your Crown, or the independence of your people.

Finally, we beg leave humbly to assure your Majesty that it will ever be our earnest endeavour, as it is our bounden duty, to train up the youth entrusted to our care in the principles of loyalty and affection towards your Majesty; and in faithful attachment to the truths of Holy Scripture as set forth in the Articles and Formularies of our reformed Church; and it is our fervent prayer, that it may please Almighty God to pour down upon your Majesty the riches of His grace, and to bless your people with the long continuance of your Majesty's happy reign.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our common seal, this twenty-seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord 1850.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer :

“ I accept, with much satisfaction, the renewed proof afforded by your address of your attachment and loyalty to my Person and Government, and of your steadfast adherence to the principles of the Constitution.

“ It has ever been, and will continue to be, my endeavour to promote the efficiency and maintain the purity of our reformed Church, the supreme government of which, under God is, by law, confided to Me, and it is highly gratifying to Me to be assured of your faithful adherence to its principles, doctrine, and discipline.

“ While I cordially concur in the wish, that all classes of my subjects should enjoy the free exercise of their religion, you may rely on my determination to uphold alike the rights of my Crown, and the independence of my people, against all aggressions and encroachments of any foreign Power.

“Your earnest endeavour in the discharge of your important duties, to train up the youth entrusted to your care, in faithful attachment to the truths of Holy Scripture, cannot fail, under God’s blessing, to have a powerful effect in strengthening the defences of our Protestant faith, and in preserving inviolate the privileges which are justly dear to the people of this country.”

Windsor-Castle, December 10, 1850.

This day His Royal Highness Prince Albert, and a Deputation from the University of Cambridge, waited upon Her Majesty to present the following Address to Her Majesty, which Her Majesty was graciously pleased to receive on the Throne :

To the QUEEN’S Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty’s dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne to express to your Majesty our grateful acknowledgements of that security as regards our persons, and that preservation of our religion with which it has pleased God to bless our country under the rule of your Majesty’s Royal House.

It has hitherto been our greatest privilege to regard the realm of England as possessing, under one supreme Governor, an entire power and jurisdiation, both in Church and State, independent of all foreign interference whatsoever: and every attempt at such interference has accordingly been met by strenuous and effectual resistance on the part of your Majesty's Royal Predecessors.

At the Reformation in particular, and subsequently, this fundamental principle was, by the patriotic care of our Sovereigns, asserted and ratified by various Acts of the legislature: an oath is moreover exacted of Officers of State, of Ministers of the Established Church, of Masters and Fellows of Colleges, and of all persons taking degrees within the Universities, declaratory of their rejection of all foreign jurisdiction, power and authority, as well ecclesiastical or spiritual as civil, within this realm.

We therefore most humbly beg leave to represent unto your Majesty that it is with deep concern that we have learned that the Bishop of Rome has arrogated to himself the right to intermeddle with the government of our country, and to ignore the ancient episcopacy of our church by presuming to confer on certain of your Majesty's subjects professing the Roman Catholic religion the highest ecclesiastical titles derived from English towns, together with territorial jurisdiction.

By this unwarrantable assumption of power on the part of the Bishop of Rome, not only are your Majesty's high prerogative, and the lawful authority and jurisdictions of the prelates of our church invaded and outraged, but the consciences of your Majesty's loyal subjects grievously offended.

We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to direct such measures to be taken as this infraction, if not of the letter, yet of the spirit of our laws seem to demand; and thus secure to your Majesty's devoted and affectionate people the full possession of their ancient rights and liberties.

In the meanwhile our most earnest desire is that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty to reign in peace over a loyal and contented people.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

"I thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address.

"I fully participate in your expression of gratitude to Almighty God for the blessings which He has been pleased to bestow upon this country, and I rejoice in the proofs which have been given of the zealous and undiminished attachment of the English people to the principles asserted at the Reformation.

"While it is my earnest wish that complete freedom of conscience should be enjoyed by all classes of my subjects, it is my constant aim to uphold the just privileges and extend the usefulness of the Church established by law in this country, and to secure to my people the full possession of their ancient rights and liberties."

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury from time to time, by warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such warrant; and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by warrant as aforesaid to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid. And it is provided, that the power thereby given should extend to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas in consequence of communications opened with the Post-offices of Sweden and Norway it is considered expedient to alter the rates of postage payable on letters and Newspapers conveyed between the United Kingdom and Sweden or Norway.

Now, we the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in that behalf, direct, that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between the countries and places next hereinafter mentioned, there shall be charged and paid in lieu of any rates heretofore chargeable on such letters, the several rates of British postage hereinafter set forth (that is to say):—

Between any part of the United Kingdom and Sweden or Norway, direct, a rate of six pence.

Between any part of the United Kingdom and Norway, viâ Sweden, a rate of six pence.

Between any part of the United Kingdom and Sweden or Norway, viâ Denmark, a rate of six pence.

And we direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted in or addressed to any part of Sweden or Norway, transmitted by the post between Sweden or Norway and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country, through the United Kingdom, conveyed between the United Kingdom and Sweden or Norway direct, or viâ Denmark, there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters an uniform rate of British postage of six pence for the conveyance of every such letter between Sweden or Norway or Denmark, and any part of the United Kingdom; and also such a further or additional rate of British postage for the conveyance of every such respective letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, as shall from time to time be chargeable and payable for British postage on letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same and transmitted direct between such port and such colony or foreign country.

And we further direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and paid progressive and additional rates of British postage, according to the scale of weight and number of rates following (that is to say):—

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce.

And we further direct, that such printed newspapers as are hereinafter mentioned may be sent by the post free of postage, or liable to postage, according to the regulations and rates hereinafter set forth (that is to say):—

British newspapers, and such British publications as are allowed to pass by the post as newspapers in the United Kingdom, may, if posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Sweden or Norway, be sent from the United Kingdom to Sweden or Norway direct, or viâ Denmark, by packet-boat free, and by private ship at a rate of one penny each.

Newspapers, published and posted in Sweden or Norway, may be sent from thence to any part of the United Kingdom direct, or viâ Denmark, by packet-boat, free, and by private ship at a rate of one penny each.

Newspapers, published and posted in Sweden or Norway, may be sent from thence to the British colonies and foreign countries through the United Kingdom; and foreign and colonial newspapers, addressed to Sweden or Norway, may be sent from foreign countries and the British colonies to Sweden or Norway through the United Kingdom direct, or viâ Denmark (the sea conveyance being by packet-boat or private ship), at a rate of one penny each.

And we further direct, that every printed supplement, or additional sheet to any newspaper, shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we further direct, that the said newspapers shall be forwarded under and subject to the following conditions (that is to say):—

Each must be printed in the language of the country in which it is published. Each must be sent without a cover, or in a cover or band open at the sides or ends, and there must be no word or communication printed on the paper after its publication, or upon the cover or band thereon, nor any writing, figures, or manual marks upon it, or upon the cover or band of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent. There must be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper. Any newspaper not forwarded in conformity with such conditions is to be chargeable with the full letter rates of postage.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any letters or newspapers passing by the post between the United Kingdom and Sweden or Norway, viâ France, or any other foreign country (except Denmark), which letters and newspapers shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act, or by an Act made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office." And that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct, that the term “ by the post,” used in this warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by packet-boat or private ship, British as well as foreign, except where the contrary is expressed ; and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty’s Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered or the regulations hereby made ; and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

FROM THE
LONDON GAZETTE of DECEMBER 24, 1850.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December 1850,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law of copyright," it is, among other things enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorized by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire any printed book first composed or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions:

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to "the protection in the colonies of works entitled "to copyright in the United Kingdom," it is enacted, that in case the legislature or proper legislative authorities in any British possession shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same in the proper manner to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty ; and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring, that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or in any other Acts against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony : and thereupon such Act or Ordinance, shall come into operation, except so far as may be otherwise provided therein, or may be otherwise directed by such Order in Council :

And whereas an Act has been passed by the Legislature of the Province of Canada, No. 780, intituled "An Act to impose a duty on foreign reprints of British copyright works," whereby it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Governor in Council to impose an ad valorem duty not exceeding twenty per centum upon books imported into the said province wherein the copyright shall be subsisting, first composed or written or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country with regard to which the notice to the Commissioners of Customs required by any Act of the Imperial Parliament in force in that behalf shall have been given, and from time to time to alter the said duty (not exceeding in any case the rate aforesaid), and from time to time to establish such regulations and conditions as may be consistent with any Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom then in force and as he may deem requisite and equitable with regard to the admission of such books and to the distribution of the proceeds of such duty to or among the party or parties beneficially interested in the copyright :

And it is thereby further enacted that the provisions of that Act (except in so far as may be otherwise directed in such Order of Her Majesty in Council, shall come into operation from and after the day to be appointed for that purpose in any proclamation of the Governor of the said province signifying Her Majesty's approval of that Act, and the issuing of such Order in Council and not before :

And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the said Act of the Canadian Legislature :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the same, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the proclamation hereinafter mentioned of Her Majesty's approval of the duty to be imposed and the regulations to be made by the said Governor in Council, pursuant to the said last-mentioned Act, and thenceforth so long as such Act shall remain and continue in force within the said province, all prohibitions in either of the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament or in any other Acts thereof contained against the importing into the said province or against the selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing therein foreign reprints of books first composed, written, printed or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein shall be suspended so far as regards the said province. Provided always, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Act shall not come into operation except for the purpose of enabling the said Governor in Council, to impose such duties and to make such regulations as therein mentioned until Her Majesty's approval of the rate of duty so to be imposed, and the regulations so to be made shall have been signified to the said Governor by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and until the approval so signified shall have been proclaimed in the said province and thereupon the said Act shall come wholly into operation.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Earl Grey, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

deceased, Her Royal licence and authority that he and his issue, may in compliance with a clause contained in a certain disposition and deed of entail, bearing date the 31st day of December 1793, take and henceforth use the surname of Douglas, in addition to and after that of Monteath, and that he and they may bear the arms of Douglas quarterly in the first quarter, with those of Monteath, and that he, the said Thomas Monteath, may bear the designation of Monteath Douglas, of Douglas Support and Menteth, such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon for or in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post :

And whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," the proviso concerning the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post as fixed in and by the said first-mentioned Act is repealed, and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or an inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, at any time or times thereafter, by warrant under their hands, to fix a maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight, wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof ; and all letters are to be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post in conformity with any such warrant, and also in conformity with, and under and subject to all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations and restrictions as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct ; and by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign of any letters sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he may think fit, on the same being put into the Post-office, and also with such consent to abolish or restrict the prepayment, in money, of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made ; and it is also declared and enacted that it shall be lawful for the Postmaster-General and any officer of the Post-office to detain any letters which shall be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations of that Act, or the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act, and to open such letters and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time direct:

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said before mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, by this warrant under our hands, order and direct that printed books, printed magazines, printed reviews, printed pamphlets (whether British, colonial, or foreign), may be transmitted by the post between any part of the United Kingdom and any part of the British West Indies, Newfoundland, Gibraltar, Malta, or Hong-Kong, subject to the several regulations and rates hereinafter contained (that is to say):

On every packet consisting of a single printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall be sewed or bound together, if not exceeding half a pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of sixpence.

And on every such packet, if exceeding half a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of one shilling.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of two shillings.

And on every such packet, if exceeding two pounds and not exceeding three pounds in weight, there shall be charged and taken one uniform rate of postage of three shillings.

And for every additional one pound in weight of any such packet, above the weight of three pounds, there shall be charged and taken an additional rate of postage of one shilling, and every fraction of such additional pound shall be charged as an additional pound.

And we further order and direct, that no such packet, if containing more than one printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, or containing any paper or thing besides a printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, or containing any printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall not be sewed or bound together, or which packet, in length, or breadth, or width, or depth, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet or twenty-four inches, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

And we further order and direct, that as to any packet hereinbefore authorized to be sent by the post under the provisions aforesaid, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall in every case be prepaid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon under or by virtue of this warrant; and as to any such packet posted in the aforesaid colonies, the postage thereof shall in every case be prepaid in money at the time of the same being posted.

And we further order and direct, that every such packet shall be sent without a cover, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and shall contain printed matter only with the binding thereof, and there shall be no writing or marks upon the cover or envelope thereof, or upon or within any part of the contents thereof, other than the name and address of the person to whom the packet shall be sent.

And in order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, we further direct, that it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office in the United Kingdom to delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours from the time at which (or at his option until the despatch of the mail next after that by which) the same ought otherwise to have been forwarded by him; and it shall be lawful for any officer of the Post-office in the aforesaid colonies to delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post under the provisions of this warrant for the space of seven days from the time at which (or at his option until the despatch of the mail next after that by which) the same ought otherwise to have been forwarded by him.

And we further direct that nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to interfere with or affect the transmission by the post of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, or of printed votes and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures, nor of printed papers or other printed publications which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege.

And we further order and direct, that if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this present warrant, shall contain any paper or thing besides a printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, and the binding thereof, or shall have any writing or marks upon the same, or upon the cover or envelope thereof, except the name and address of the person to whom it is forwarded, or shall not be open at the ends or sides, or shall in length or breadth, or width or depth, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or twenty-four inches, or shall contain more than one printed book, or printed magazine, or printed review, or printed pamphlet, or shall contain any printed book, printed magazine, printed review, or printed pamphlet, the several sheets or parts of which, when more than one, shall not be sewed or bound together, or if the postage of any such packet posted in the United Kingdom, shall not be duly and properly prepaid by stamps when posted, or if the postage of any such packet posted in any of the aforesaid colonies shall not be duly and properly prepaid in money when posted, the same shall and may be detained and opened and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination, and any such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

And we further direct, that printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, and printed votes and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures may be sent between the United Kingdom and the East Indies or Hong-Kong, by Her Majesty's Mediterranean packet-boats, viâ Southampton and Syria or Egypt, at the several rates of British postage fixed by the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty on printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament sent to Her Majesty's colonies by packet-boat, and on printed votes, and proceedings of the Colonial Legislatures sent to the United Kingdom from the colonies by packet-boat, but such respective votes and proceedings shall be subject to all the regulations, conditions, and penalties, prescribed by the said last-mentioned Act, in respect of printed papers sent by the post.

And we further direct, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packets sent through France, or any other foreign country to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon, nor to any packets sent by private ships.

And we further order and direct, that the term "British West Indies" used in this warrant shall include the Bermudas, the Bahamas, and other British Islands, commonly called the West Indies, as also the colonies of British Guiana and Honduras, and their respective dependencies; and that the term "by the post," used in this warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by packet-boat; and that the several other terms and expressions used in this warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct, that this warrant shall come into operation on the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
